

2010 EPA Region 10 Tribal Leaders Summit

"Working to Protect our Resources for Future Generations"

August 30 - September 3, 2010

"The Spirit of the Caretaker" - Lance Twitchell

On the left is Raven. Above raven is the Moon, and behind the Moon is an abstraction of the Stars. In Raven's mouth is the World, with a spirit that mirrors that of the Moon (they are always gazing at each other). Next to Raven is Eagle. They both have the World in their mouth, and their tongues touching the world symbolizes the exchange of knowledge. Above and to the right of Eagle is the Sun. In between Raven and Eagle is the Spirit of the Caretaker, who relies on female knowledge of birth and cycles to understand the fragility of the World. Below her are waves to represent water. To the right of Eagle are abstractions representing fire (red) and wind (blue).
